

Application for Exemption from the Shared Responsibility Payment for Individuals who Experience Hardships

Use this application to apply for an exemption from the shared responsibility payment

- Every person needs to have health coverage or make a payment on their federal income tax return called the “shared responsibility payment.”
- Some people are exempt from making this payment. This application is for one category of exemption. You may apply for certain other categories of exemptions when you file your federal income tax return.
- You don't need to apply for an exemption if you're not going to file a federal income tax return. If you're not sure you'll file a tax return, you may want to apply for an exemption anyway.

Who can use this application?

- Use this application if you and/or anyone in your tax household have experienced a hardship that keeps you from getting health coverage. See page 1 for the list of hardships.
- If you get a hardship exemption, you may qualify for catastrophic coverage.
- You can use one single application to ask for this exemption for more than one person in your tax household.

What you need to apply

- Documents that support your claim of hardship (see page 1 for descriptions of which documents are needed for each hardship exemption.) The document(s) you submit must show dates from the same time period you're requesting this exemption for. If you can't obtain the documents, call the Health Insurance Marketplace Call Center at 1-800-318-2596. TTY users should call 1-855-889-4325.
- Social Security Numbers (SSNs), if you have them.
- Information about people in your tax household.

Why do we ask for this information?

We ask for Social Security Numbers and other information to make sure your exemption is counted when you file your federal income tax return. We'll keep all the information you give private and secure, as required by law. To view the Privacy Act Statement, go to HealthCare.gov or see instructions.

STEP 2: Tell us about your tax household.

Who do you need to include on this application?

You need to complete Step 2 for every person in your household who is on the same federal income tax return. If the person doesn't want an exemption, just answer questions 1-7 of Step 2.

For Person 1:

Person 1 must be an adult who files a federal income tax return in your household, even if they don't want an exemption.

For Person 2:

Person 2 can be either:

- A spouse who files taxes jointly with Person 1.
- Anyone that Person 1 claims as a dependent on the same tax return.

Who not to include:

- A spouse who files taxes separately. Spouses who file separately need to fill out a separate application for themselves and for each person they claim on their tax return.
- Anyone who lives with you but who isn't listed on your tax return. Each person who needs an exemption must be on an application with the person who lists them on a tax return.

If you don't plan to file taxes, you don't need to apply for an exemption.

You'll get an eligibility determination letter in the mail after your application is processed. If you get this exemption, we'll give you an Exemption Certificate Number (ECN) with your approval letter. Keep the letter for your records. You'll need to put this number on your federal income tax return at the time you file taxes.

We'll keep all the information you provide private and secure, as required by law. We'll use personal information only to check if you're eligible for an exemption.

STEP 2: PERSON 1

Person 1 must be the person who files a federal income tax return, even if the person doesn't need this exemption.

We use SSNs to help make sure that if you get an exemption, it's applied correctly on your taxes. If someone wants help getting an SSN, call 1-800-772-1213 or visit socialsecurity.gov.
